Lab Furniture System

Our solutions

Godrej Interio, a division of Godrej & Boyce Manufacturing Co. Ltd., is India's largest manufacturer of home and office furniture. Among the many specialized industries that we service, we also design and manufacture furniture for labs, educational institutions, healthcare establishments, hospitals, shipyards and navy, auditoriums and stadiums.

Today, Godrej Interio Labs division is recognized for its focus on functionality, international standards of aesthetics and durable hassle-free product design and quality. It serves clients across different segments of industry, research centres, schools and universities, government agencies and healthcare establishments.

Nucleus: A personalised lab

With years of expertise in design, manufacturing and installation of Lab Furniture and engineering solutions, we understand that each lab comes with unique requirements.

Nucleus has been designed as an elemental, flexible Lab system that can cater to the needs of every lab. The modular D-frame based system coupled with contemporary design makes Nucleus a durable, efficient Lab system, the perfect starting point for your new lab plans.

That's why, when you plan your Lab with Nucleus, you can look forward to space optimised solutions, and achieve higher per lab capacity without compromising on usage and aesthetic aspects; and a lab partner for years to come.
